I've been here, it'll be five years in July. I do normal paralegal activities, such as preparing documents for Shannon and Jenna to review. I previously lived in Ohio and worked for the prosecutor there for about 20 years. And then I've been with Shannon since I moved to Florida. I love working with the elder people. They're always very kind, and they've not done this type of documentation before, so they want to know how it works. And I love being able to explain that, and help them to set expectations, and have their wishes carried out. They're so appreciative, and so easy to speak with. And they're return client, because we did a good job in the first place. To me, that's a huge compliment.
